SPA MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

INDIVIDUAL MEMBER

The individual member is entitled to all SPA rights for the duration of their annual subscription:

- 1) To receive the SPA newsletter and other offers provided from time to time;
- 2) To vote at the AGM held at Kindrogan;
- 3) To access the member's section of the SPA website and to enter details of work on the web;
- 4) To attend workshops and Kindrogan (first come first served basis);
- 5) To obtain discount at certain suppliers subject to submission of membership card or membership number;
- 6) To a free listing on Scottish Potters Map if your workshop is open to the public; and
- 7) To submit work to open and selected SPA exhibitions. The number of pieces allowed will be subject to venue requirements as provided on the exhibition application form;
- 8)

FAMILY MEMBER

Family membership entitles two named individuals from the same household to the equivalent of two individual members rights outlined above. This membership also allows an individual to bring his or her partner to SPA functions.

SENIOR CITIZEN

A Senior Citizen has full individual member rights and must be 65 or over when joining or renewing membership.

WORKSHOP

Workshop membership is for a pottery or any ceramic associated organisation with multiple personnel operating from a single address. It entitles two named members to the equivalent of two individual members rights for (1) to (5) above. All other associated workshop members must be listed on the annual renewal subscription form and changes notified to the membership secretary to obtain benefit of the SPA events:

1. They can attend workshops and Kindrogan (subject to availability);
2. The total allocation of exhibition pieces for all named workshop members will be equivalent to the venue allocation for two individual members. The maximum number of pieces an individual workshop member can submit will be the individual member allocation defined in (7) above;
3. Any entry on the potters map or SPA website will be under the name of the workshop; but
4. They do not have access to the member's section of the SPA website.
- 5.

APPRENTICE

A Workshop Membership will sponsor an Apprentice. It will provide the apprentice with individual member rights.

STUDENT

Student Membership is equivalent to individual membership. This category is free for the duration of a full time certified ceramics course approved by the SPA committee and subject to providing a photocopy of their matriculation card or a letter from a tutor confirming full time status. These documents must be submitted with each annual subscription application. Other full time students with a ceramics interest will be considered by the SPA committee on an individual basis but must be sponsored by their tutor. As student membership is subsidised by other SPA members they are expected to contribute to the SPA newsletter (articles, reviews etc.) or help out at events if so requested.
